Ref: (a) N.C. Utility Commission Order Granting Certificate of Environmental Compatibility and Public Convenience and Necessity; (per Docket No. E-2, Sub 1150)

(b) N.C. G.S. 62-90 Right of Appeal: Filing of Exceptions, --(c) The Commission may on motion of any party to the proceeding or on its own motion set the exception to the final order upon which such appeal is based for further hearing before the Commission.

Subj: Motion for Extension of Time to File an Appeal; Filing of Exceptions -via Ref: (b)

1. I represent myself, 'Pro Se' in this Proceeding.
2. Oliver L. Canaday (intervener); -Wherefore intervener prays the Commission for extension of time to present subject.
3. Therefore the undersigned prays the commission grants an extension of 30 days in addition to time allowed by N.C. Rules of Civil Procedures for Reference (a).
4. Reference (a) provides discoveries that needed to be presented during the 31 Oct. 2017 Formal Hearing by the Commission. Intervener believes presenting discoveries of fact to the Commission is in best interest of rate paying consuming public. (Factual Information in Reference (a), written in Commission Order, was not available to present at the 31-Oct. 2017 Formal Hearing.)
5. The undersigned states that this action is made in good faith and not for purpose to delay. Further more I state this is not a frivolous action.
6. I think you for your attention to this motion.

Sincerely,

Oliver L. Canaday
