Defendant	)

BY THE HEARING EXAMINER: On October 10, 2022, the Commission issued an Order Granting Defendant Duke Energy Carolinas, LLC's Motion to Dismiss, In Part, Denying Motion to Dismiss, In Part, and Scheduling Hearing in the above-captioned docket. The order granted Defendant's motion to dismiss, in part, regarding Complainant's real property claims; denied Defendant's motion to dismiss, in part, regarding whether Defendant acted in an unjust and unreasonable manner in its dealings and communication with Complainant; and scheduled an evidentiary hearing on Complainant's remaining claims for Thursday, November 10, 2022, at 2:00 p.m. in Commission Hearing Room 2115, Dobbs Building, 430 North Salisbury Street, Raleigh, North Carolina.

On October 19, 2022, Defendant filed a Motion for Continuance of Hearing, stating that Defendant's primary witness and another witness familiar with the issues in this proceeding are unavailable to be in Raleigh on the date set for the hearing due to scheduling conflicts that have been in place for some time. Defendant further states that the remaining issues before the Commission are not time-sensitive, and the hearing can be continued without harm to Complainant.

The Hearing Examiner concludes that good cause exists to grant Defendant's motion and reschedule the hearing in this matter.

IT IS, THEREFORE, ORDERED as follows:

1. That the evidentiary hearing shall be, and hereby is, rescheduled for Monday, December 5, 2022, at 2:00 p.m., Commission Hearing Room 2115, Dobbs Building, 430 North Salisbury Street, Raleigh, North Carolina; and

2. That this Order shall be served on Complainant by United States certified mail, return receipt requested, and on Defendant by electronic mail.

ISSUED BY ORDER OF THE COMMISSION.

This the 25th day of October, 2022.
