- Registration is required in conjunction with pro hac vice admission to a North Carolina tribunal. See G.S. 84-4.1 (5). Registration is not required for pro hac vice admission to a federal court, but is required for pro hac vice admission to the NC Court of Appeals and the NC Supreme Court.

Suggested wording for the statement: "Regarding the matters identified in items 3 & 4 of the Pro Hac Vice Registration Statement, I, [out of state attorney's name], verify that I will report any income earned to the North Carolina Department of Revenue if required to do so by law." (Please list the case caption above the signed statement.)

- Payment Information: Confirm that the out of state attorney has paid the $25 fee owed to the North Carolina State Bar pursuant to G.S. 84-4.1(7).
  - When filing a pro hac vice motion with a district or superior court of the North Carolina General Courts of Justice, a fee of $225 should be collected by the clerk of court in the county. The clerk will remit $25 of this fee to the Administrative Office of the Courts for ultimate transmission to the State Bar in satisfaction of the payment required by G.S. 84-4.1(7). Payment to the clerk may be documented with a receipt or by providing the check number and date of the check.

- If the clerk fails to collect the $25 fee for the State Bar, a check or money order for $25, payable to the North Carolina State Bar, must be submitted to the State Bar with this registration form.
- The NC Administrative Office of the Courts has determined that there is no separate $20 filing fee for filing a motion. However, if more than one lawyer applies for pro hac vice admission in the same motion, $225 is owed for each lawyer seeking admission.
- If the matter is filed in an administrative tribunal (e.g., the Industrial Commission or the Utilities Commission), mail a $25 check or money order, payable to the North Carolina State Bar, to the State Bar with this registration form.
