Re: Docket No. E-22, Sub 546
Dominion Energy North Carolina's 2017 Fuel Charge Adjustment
Proceeding

Dear Ms. Jarvis:

It has come to Dominion Energy North Carolina's (the "Company") attention that the Public Notice issued on August 30, 2017, in the above-docketed case contained two typographical errors appearing in paragraph 2. Specifically, the word decrease should have been "increase" and the word "January" used instead of December. While the Company feels that reasonable notice has occurred with the publication of the August 30 Notice, out of an abundance of caution we respectfully request the Commission to issue an Amended Public Notice as soon as reasonably possible. In addition, the Company would ask that the publication of the Amended Notice be limited to appear once in the newspaper as opposed to two successive weeks.

Please let me know if you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Horace P. Payne, Jr.
Senior Counsel
