133.2 AND NCUC RULE R8-55)

Pursuant to Rule 1-7 and Rule R1-19 of the Rules and Regulations of the North Carolina Utilities Commission, Nucor Steel-Hertford, a division of Nucor Corporation, hereby moves to intervene in the above-captioned proceeding. In support of its petition, Nucor states:

1. On August 23, 2017, Dominion Energy North Carolina filed an application to adjust the fuel component of its electric rates to become effective January 1, 2018, and remain in effect for the calendar year 2018.

2. Nucor is a corporation organized pursuant to the laws of the State of Delaware with its corporate headquarters located at 2100 Rexford Road, Charlotte, North Carolina 28211.

3. Nucor owns and operates a steel recycling facility located in Hertford County, North Carolina, which produces steel plate. Virginia Electric and Power Company does business in North Carolina as Dominion Energy North Carolina (hereinafter "DENC"). Nucor is a customer of DENC and takes service pursuant to a special contract for electric service, as amended, subject to the jurisdiction of the North Carolina Utilities Commission.

4. As a current customer of DENC, Nucor has an interest that is directly affected by the outcome of this proceeding and, in accordance with the Commission's Rule R1-19, has a right to intervene in this proceeding.

5. Nucor's interest is not adequately represented by any other party, and Nucor should not be consolidated with any party or group of parties.

6. All correspondence related to this proceeding should be addressed to:
