PETITION TO INTERVENE

PURSUANT TO NCUC Rule R1-19, the Southern Environmental Law Center, through counsel, files this petition to intervene in this docket. In support of its petition, the Southern Environmental Law Center states as follows:

1. The Southern Environmental Law Center ("SELC"), a regional organization dedicated to the protection of the Southern environment, advocates for the use of cleaner energy resources in North Carolina. The address of SELC's Carolinas Office is: Southern Environmental Law Center, 200 W. Franklin St., Suite 330, Chapel Hill, NC, 27516.

2. The attorney for SELC to whom all correspondence and filings in this docket should be addressed is: Gudrun Thompson, Southern Environmental Law Center, 200 W. Franklin Street, Suite 330, Chapel Hill, NC 27516. Service by electronic mail pursuant to NCUC Rule R1-39 is acceptable and should be addressed to gthompson@selcnc.org.

3. SELC and its members have a direct and substantial interest in the electric utility Integrated Resource Planning process in North Carolina. Many of SELC's members are customers of the electric utilities in North Carolina who use electric power in their homes and businesses. SELC and its members are interested in promoting greater reliance on cleaner energy sources by electric utilities in North Carolina.

3. SELC seeks to intervene in this proceeding in order to advocate that the Commission undertake a comprehensive review of the electric utilities' resource planning documents to ensure that they comply with applicable requirements.

WHEREFORE, the Southern Environmental Law Center prays that it be allowed to intervene in this matter.

Respectfully submitted this 5th day of February, 2010.
