62-133.8 and Commission Rule R8-67)

On February 18, 2022, Duke Energy Carolinas, LLC (“DEC” or the “Company”) filed its Request to Delay Filing of its 2021 Renewable Energy & Energy Efficiency Portfolio Standards (“REPS”) Compliance Report. That request is incorporated by reference, and DEC respectfully requests that the North Carolina Utilities Commission (“Commission”) issue an expedited order to allow DEC to delay retirement of Renewable Energy Certificates for 2021 REPS compliance for ten business days after the Commission issues its order on the Joint Movants’ September 30, 2021 motion in Docket No. E-100, Sub 113. At the conclusion of the ten-day time extension, DEC will file Supplemental Testimony with its REPS Compliance Report.

Respectfully submitted, this the 21st day of February, 2022.
