Pursuant to N.C.G.S. § 62-110.9 and)
§ 62-110.1(c)

NOW COMES the Movant, Tract Capital Management, LP (“Tract Capital”) through its undersigned attorney of record in this cause, and pursuant to N.C. Gen. Stat. § 84-4.1, respectfully moves the North Carolina Utilities Commission (“the Commission”) for an Order granting privileges to practice pro hac vice to the attorney of the law firm hereinafter listed in the above captioned dockets. In support of this Motion, the Movant respectfully shows unto the Commission the following:

1. The full name and address of the counsel requesting privileges to practice pro hac vice is as follows:

Terence T. Healey, Esq.
Sidley Austin LLP
1501 K Street, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20005
Telephone: (617) 223-0306
thealey@sidley.com

2. The aforementioned attorney is licensed to practice in the District of Columbia and the State of Massachusetts, is engaged in the active practice of law within these states, and is a member in good standing of the Bar of the District of Columbia and the Bar of the State of Massachusetts.

3. The undersigned attorney certifies that Terence Healey and the law firm of Sidley Austin LLP have been retained to represent Tract Capital in the above-captioned proceedings before the Commission, together with the undersigned member of the North Carolina State Bar, attorney Daniel R. Simon of the law firm of Nelson, Mullins, Riley & Scarborough LLP of Charlotte, North Carolina.

4. Attached hereto as Exhibit A is an Affidavit signed by the attorney seeking admission. The Affidavit states that the attorney is regularly admitted and in good standing to practice in the courts of record in the District of Columbia and State of Massachusetts; will continue to represent Tract Capital in the above-captioned proceeding until the final determination thereof, unless permitted to withdraw sooner by order of the Commission; and agrees to be subject to the orders and amenable to the disciplinary action and civil jurisdiction of the General Court of Justice, the Commission, and the North Carolina State Bar in all respects as if a regularly admitted and licensed member of the Bar of North Carolina in good standing. Movant adopts by reference and incorporates herein the contents of Exhibit A.

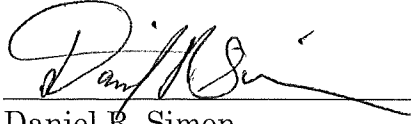

5. The undersigned is informed and believes that the Bar of the District of Columbia and the Bar of the State of Massachusetts grant like privileges to practice pro hac vice to members of the Bar of North Carolina in good standing, as recited in Exhibit A.

6. Attached hereto as Exhibit B is a letter from Jessica Bennett, affirming that Tract Capital has retained Mr. Healey to represent its interests in these matters.

7. The undersigned attorney Daniel R. Simon is a licensed attorney in the State of North Carolina and has been associated with the foregoing attorney seeking pro hac vice admission, and will be personally appearing in the above-captioned proceedings before the Commission. Mr. Simon resides in the State of North Carolina and is duly and legally admitted to practice in the General Court of Justice of North Carolina. Service on Mr. Simon as the undersigned resident attorney may be had in all matters connected with these legal proceedings, or any disciplinary matter, with the same effect as if personally made in this State on the foreign attorney seeking to practice before this Commission pro hac vice.

WHEREFORE, Tract Capital and the undersigned attorney respectfully requests that Terence T. Healey of Sidley Austin LLP be permitted to appear pro hac vice before the North Carolina Utilities Commission in the above-captioned proceedings and that the Commission enter an order granting such relief.

This the 5th day of June 2024.
