Re: Docket No. E-100, Sub 165

Honorable Clerk and Commissioners:

On May 5, 2021, the North Carolina Attorney General's Office (AGO) filed corrections to its initial comments in the above-referenced dockets regarding Duke's Integrated Resource Plans. The filing included a cover letter explaining the corrections, the corrected initial comments, and corrections to confidential information in the attachment. Because both the comments and attachment contain confidential information, the three documents were uploaded to the Commission's website confidentially and were not made available to the public. A redacted copy of the comments and attachment should have been filed, but due to a clerical error, they were not, and I cannot find a record that the filings were served, other than an advance copy that was provided to counsel for Duke.

Accordingly, I hereby file the public (redacted) version of the Corrected Attorney General Initial Comments, the attachment (which is unchanged in the redacted version), and the cover letter filed May 5. Also, note that I am forwarding a copy of this letter and the Public Version of these documents to all parties of record by email.

Again, the AGO apologizes for these errors and notes that the corrections do not alter or change the arguments or recommendations made in the original Comments and Attachment.

Yours very truly,

Electronically submitted
/s/Margaret A. Force
Special Deputy Attorney General
