)

NOW COME Duke Energy Carolinas, LLC and Duke Energy Progress, LLC (collectively, the "Companies"), pursuant to Rule R1-7(a)(5) of the North Carolina Utilities Commission ("Commission") and the Order Requiring Filing of Supplemental Comments, issued by the Commission on April 22, 2022, and subsequent orders granting motions for extension of time, respectfully move the Commission for a 30-day extension of time to September 7, 2022, for all parties to file supplemental reply comments. In support of their joint motion, the Companies show as follows:

1. On April 22, 2022, the Commission issued an order directing the Companies, DENC and the Public Staff to file comments on the implementation of, and any updates to, the utilities' respective customer billing and data management systems, and the utilities advanced metering infrastructure, explaining how these developments inform or affect the parties previously filed comments.
2. The Order also encouraged, without requiring, other intervenors to file supplemental comments on these and any other relevant developments since the filing of past comments.

3. On July 22, 2022, the Companies, the Public Staff, Dominion Energy North Carolina, the Attorney General's Office, and Mission:Data filed Supplemental Comments. Certain parties proposed significant revisions to previously drafted rules, new processes that should be implemented, and numerous other developments.
4. The Companies have been working diligently on their supplemental reply comments, but due to the addition of new revisions to the proposed rules in this docket, as well as considerations for new processes for implementation, and the press of other matters, the Companies require additional time to examine these revisions, consider these new processes, and complete their supplemental reply comments. Additionally, the Companies are communicating with other parties, and the Companies' understanding is that the other parties are in communication with each other. Further conversations may lead to more positions of agreement.
5. The requested extension will not result in prejudice to any party.
6. Counsel for the Companies has contacted counsel for the parties to this docket about this requested extension, and no party objected to it.

WHEREFORE, the Companies respectfully request that the Commission issue an order granting an extension of 30 days, up to and including September 7, 2022, for all parties to file supplemental reply comments.

Respectfully submitted, this 4th day of August, 2022
